	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Persons from safe countries of origin still do not have access to the federal integration measures while their asylum process is ongoing. The Agentur für Arbeit issues the necessary certificate with which they can get access to the relevant language courses. The approval application for participation in an integration course should be made to the Bundesamt für Migration und Flüchtlinge (BAMF). As evidence of having registered for support from the Agentur für Arbeit, the persons eligible for access require meaningful documentation. This could be: • Confirmation of the existing unemployed status or registration as looking for work or training through the Agentur für Arbeit • Certificate about unemployment benefit (Arbeitslosengeld) • Confirmation from the provider about ongoing support (preparing for work, preparing for training phase of the assisted training) • Work or training contract together with the presentation of the residence documents which the employment by the relevant employer allows.
Other:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The relevant careers advisers decide, as before, on the participation in occupational language courses according to the German language promotion ordinance of the Agentur für Arbeit. • Participation and travel costs vary according to target group. • Courses with a final examination (telc)
